Saturday, March 16th - 12pm

Sunday March 17th - 8pm

Featuring Corryn Cummins, James Hal Hardy and Maxi Witrak, PORTRAIT OF A SOUL is the story of a young woman whose life is shadowed by sexual assault experienced in her teenage years. The encounter with her abuser, a now famous artist, gives her a chance to confront him face to face, and she'll find unexpected closure from the unusual relationship they develop.

A new way of making theatre that'll catapult the audience into a world of art, mental illness and broken relationships, while offering a chance to meet other creative souls.

Single tickets include the performance, drinks, snacks, and local artists' exhibit.

Elisa Manzini is a novelist, screenwriter and playwright. Originally from Italy, her two novels have been published by Harper Collins and Cento Autori, her plays have been produced in Los Angeles and Berlin, Germany and her debut feature film It Hits You When You Know It will be released in spring 2019.

Gloria Iseli is a Los Angeles based writer and director working in theatre, film, and podcast. Some of her current projects include the indie horror feature The Headless, the audio drama Red Rhino - now playing on iTunes, a comedic variety show The Witch Hunt, and the documentary King Chess. Most recently she directed A Christmas Cactus for LittleFish Theatre.
