

FIREFLY THEATRE GROUP

PRESENTS

FLIGHTS OF FANCY

Written by Adam Green

Directed by Emily Blokker-Dalquist and Anastasia Narinskiy

@studio/stage

Opens Friday June 7th at 7:00 pm

Coming off of their very successful run of The Apple Tree, Firefly Theatre Group is proud to present the world premiere of Flights of Fancy as their first ever production at the Hollywood Fringe Festival. Having just been established in late 2018, Firefly Theatre Group endeavors to foster a home for creatives filled with ambition, experimentation, and fun. It's a safe place where artists can play, collaborate, and produce relevant, thought provoking pieces.

Imagination or reality? Elegant stagecraft or just, well... Complications? Stephanie and her best friend Tommy are flying home together, but nothing is what it seems. As we are thrown back and forth between the rehearsals for a play Stephanie has written about her troubles and her increasingly turbulent flight home, we start to wonder: can we be saved through our art or is a crash landing inevitable?

Flights of Fancy is a hilarious, trippy, and thought provoking romp through a troubled artist's psyche that will have you glued to your seat, even after the captain has turned the seatbelt sign off.

Show dates are June 7th, 15th, 17th, 22nd, and 29th
