LOS ANGELES, Calif. (May 1, 2019) — Announcing “Lincoln 2020,” a sharp, interactive political comedy that satirizes our current political situation without ever using the T-word, premiering June 6th as part of the 2019 Hollywood Fringe Festival.

Like a lot of people today, campaign manager Tess Baker is sick of politics. She’s just about ready to throw in the when somebody wakes up a candidate she can work with - Abraham Lincoln. Will he be a good President in 2020 America? Will he even win? You decide! That’s right, the play has two endings and your vote counts!

Director Colleen Labella, known for her work with IAMA Theatre Company and the Geffen Playhouse, and Playwright/Producer Holiday Kinard are first-time Fringers and excited to take HFF by storm. Tim Kopacz leads the cast of ten as Abraham Lincoln, you may remember him from last year’s award-winning production of “Resa Fantastiskt Mystisk” as well as many Sacred Fools productions.

Lighting and Projections Designer R.S. Buck has been lighting up stages all over LA, most recently Canyon at the LA Theatre Center, and Sound Designer Alex Mackyol has worked extensively with Glendale Theatre Center and Seibo, LLC.
