

"NO CHILD LEFT BEHIND" QUITE THE DARK COMEDY.

1992 South Africa and change is upon a nation. The terrorist known as Nelson Mandela has been released from prison and all ruling South Africans will have to decide whether or not they want to end Apartheid.

But for history teacher Mrs. LeRoux, the history has come into her classroom, with hers being one of the first in her all white school to be desegregated..

“No Child Left Behind” is a dark comedy about change, how we deal with it and how it will happen whether we’re ready for it or not. Written by and starring Makha Mthembu, this short one person show will have you in delightfully awkward stitches!
