

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE 7/16/2019

EMBRACE LOVE FREE returns to Los Angeles this Summer! After a sold-out debut at SoloFest 2019, the Whitefire Theatre will once again host this multi-media, multi-character, inspirational, rock 'n roll, one-man show. The performances will run 3 months, July/August/September the 3rd Sunday of each month with all showtimes at 3pm. Directed by and Developed with Jessica Lynn Johnson recipient of BEST NATIONAL SOLO ARTIST AWARD, is the Founder & CEO of Soaring Solo LLC, a company dedicated solely to the Direction & Development of one person plays. Produced by Megan Ford-Miller, Megan is a producer of both film and theater and also a promoter. During cancer, he publicly shared his journey through vulnerable live videos and is now telling his inspirational story through this multi-media, multi-character, one-man show.

"fascinating and very unique, brilliantly acted. Justin's skills as a filmmaker shine...this wonderful play is a testament to his humor, his spirit and his creativity...Bravo!!" -NoHo Arts

Justin Sandler is a director, actor, drummer, writer, speaker, and cancer survivor. He and wife Mary Lou Sandler own 3 cubed studios, LLC and have 5 rescue cats. A graduate of Indiana University, he has directed and produced cable TV in Chicago; wrote, directed, and produced commercials for ABC & FOX in Palm Springs; and has been in Los Angeles working as a professional TV, film, and commercial actor, as well as a recording and touring musician.