About For The Loyal

Toby and Mia are graduate students with a bright future ahead of them: a baby on the way and a college coaching job for Toby. But when Toby stumbles across a secret that threatens to derail their future, he and Mia must decide between honesty and loyalty, and whether doing something wrong is the only way to do what's right. Will Mia be loyal to the institutions that support her, the family she's part of, or herself? What happens to your loyalty when the choices of responsibility are thrust in front of you?

About Lee Blessing

Lee Blessing Broadway and London's West End: A Walk in the Woods (also seen on PBS's "American Playhouse"), revived by Keen Company on Theatre Row in October, 2014. THE For The Loyal CAST

Hilty Bowen, (MIA)

HILTY BOWEN (Mary Jane), is thrilled to be part of the For The Loyal team and bring life to Mia. Texas born and Florida raised, Hilty made her way to the West coast to attend USC's School of Cinematic Arts and hasn't left since. While she was there she worked extensively in theater and film and continued working professionally since graduation. Recent Credits include, Film: Guardians of the Galaxy Vol. 2, Mike and Dave Need Wedding Dates. TV: Mistresses (ABC), Scandal (ABC), Code Black (CBS). Theatre : Abigail/The Crucible, Luisa/The Fantasticks, Rizzo/Grease. Hilty would like to thank the entire cast and crew of The Loyal, the Sixty-Six Theater Company for gifting her the opportunity to work on such a compelling story, her family and friends for their endless support and of course, Jesus Christ himself!

Eddie Alfano, (COACH HALE)

Originally from Deer Park, Long Island, Eddie is a graduate of Fordham University. He can currently be seen recurring as "KJ" on Showtime's "SHAMELESS," and as one of the leads in the upcoming comedy feature, "BABYSPLITTERS," winner of the 2019 Panavision Spirit Award at the Santa Barbara Film Festival. Recent television credits include his recurring role as "Frazier" on CBS' "CRIMINAL MINDS" and guest-starring roles on "MAJOR CRIMES," "BONES," "FOR THE PEOPLE," "GENERAL HOSPITAL," and "NCIS:LA." As a writer his short films, "COPS AND ROBBERS" and "INTERNET GANGSTERS" have played at numerous festivals across the globe, both winning the Audience Choice Award at the Stony Brook Film Festival in New York. This is his third production with Sixty-Six Theater, performing in "JESUS HOPPED THE A TRAIN" and "BLUE SURGE" in 2018. He's excited to get back on stage and wants to thank Paul, the cast, and the entire Sixty-Six team for all their hard work and dedication.

Mark Youngs, (COACH CARLSON)

MARK YOUNGS (Carlson), from Grand Rapids, Michigan, is making his stage debut with Sixty-Six Theatre Co. Since re-starting his acting career, Mark has been seen on stage around the LA area, most recently as Officer Miller in When Lives Matter at the Lounge Theatre. Mark studies at Lifebook Acting Academy. He considers it an extreme privilege to work with this cast and company and looks forward to the next time.

Torrey Drake, (TOBY)

Torrey Drake is a Los Angeles based actor who's made memorable TV appearances on network shows such as Timeless, S.W.A.T., American Horror Story, The Last Ship, as well as many others. Aside from acting, Torrey is also an avid writer who's short films have gone on to win Best Screenplays at many festivals around the world and is currently writing his third feature film. His latest endeavor has been in creating his own LA based film festival: The Unreasonable Shorts Screening, which recently held its 10th sold-out screening event. Torrey is a graduate of the 2 year Meisner program offered at The Sanford Meisner Center and is in the Second City's conservatory program for improv and has the self-proclaimed cutest dog in the world: Bear the teacup Pomeranian.

Danny Martha, (The Boy)

Danny comes from a dancing background, where he trained extensively as a BBoy (Breakdancer), competing across various states. He developed an interest in acting at a young age in his middle school drama class in Albuquerque, New Mexico but didn't pursue it until upon graduating from the University of New Mexico. He made his return to his hometown of LA to do just that. Danny credits the majority of his training to Ms. Hedy Sontag at The Lee Strasberg Theatre & Film Institute. His recent credits include: Icarus' Mother by Sam Shepard (Sixty-Six Theater), bilingual commercial for Boost Mobile and short films for AFI & USC. Feel free to follow him on Instagram: @chavalitoh. He will let you buy him a coffee if you do.
