

LA Fest is our annual reading series featuring presentations of our ongoing outreach projects as well as plays written by Los Angeles playwrights from diverse backgrounds representative of our community.

Announcing this year's L.A Fest Projects!

This year we are fortunate to be pairing up with some wonderful collaborators from our Los Angeles theatre and film community for readings, workshops, and yes, film screenings!

Friday, March 13 at 8pm

Reflection and Hermanos

A screening of 2 short films by young filmmaker Timur Bootzin.

Saturday, March 14 at 4pm

Warrior Bards Workshop Reading

A staged reading of a Greek Tragedy with U.S. Veterans.

Saturday, March 14 at 8pm

An Evening of Veterans' Stories

Stories written by Warrior Bards and True Story.

Sunday, March 15 at 7pm

How'd We Get Here

by Dan Perry

A workshopped stage reading of the play in collaboration with Celebration Theatre.

Friday, March 20 at 8pm

a hit dog will holler

by Inda Craig-Galván

directed by Jon Lawrence Rivera

A workshopped stage reading of the play in collaboration with Playwright's Arena.

Saturday, March 21 at 8pm

Black Vietnam: Into the Light

directed by Ann James

A documentary film screening.

Sunday, March 22 at 7pm

O-Dogg

A workshopped stage reading of the play by Alex Alpharaoh.

All LA Fest programs include post-show discussions.